

Allowing the FM changes could eliminate the station we use so often and I just love the message they have. There are no equivalent stations here in Hawaii and so to lose this would be a huge impact on the local community. Technology must move on, but maybe we can find a way for the 2 to mingle and not be autonomous? Please consider my thoughts. Thanks. Josh Gartner